DUAL CREDIT / CONCURRENT ENROLLMENT
Dual Credit/Concurrent Enrollment is a program designed to provide high school juniors and seniors the opportunity to earn college credit while still enrolled in high school by taking University courses normally not offered at the high school.

HOW DOES THE PROGRAM WORK?
- During their junior or senior year of high school, the student will apply to be a Dual Credit student at the University of New Mexico (UNM).
- Students will continue to take classes at their high school while also taking classes at UNM.
- Tuition will be paid by the state of New Mexico, and the school district provides the textbooks.
  - Please note that students are responsible for all fees (for example, computer lab fees, or other class fees).
- Home-school or private school students may enroll, but are responsible for books and fees.
- Admission to Dual Credit/Concurrent Enrollment is in Non-Degree status and is not considered “Early Admission” to the University. Students desiring to continue in degree status after high school graduation must fulfill the admission requirements described in the current UNM Catalog.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
These are the minimum requirements for admission to the Dual Credit/Concurrent Enrollment Program. Individual high schools may require higher qualifications before certifying and recommending a student. Meeting the criteria listed does not mean that the student will be automatically admitted to the Concurrent Enrollment or Dual Credit Programs. In all cases the final admission determination will be made by the Director of University Advisement.
