

Suncat 1110: Helping UNM Students and Advisors Navigate CNM

Amanda Glennon Alvarez, CHSS Outreach Manager (She, her, hers)

Erin Radcliffe, CHSS School Advisor (She, her, hers)

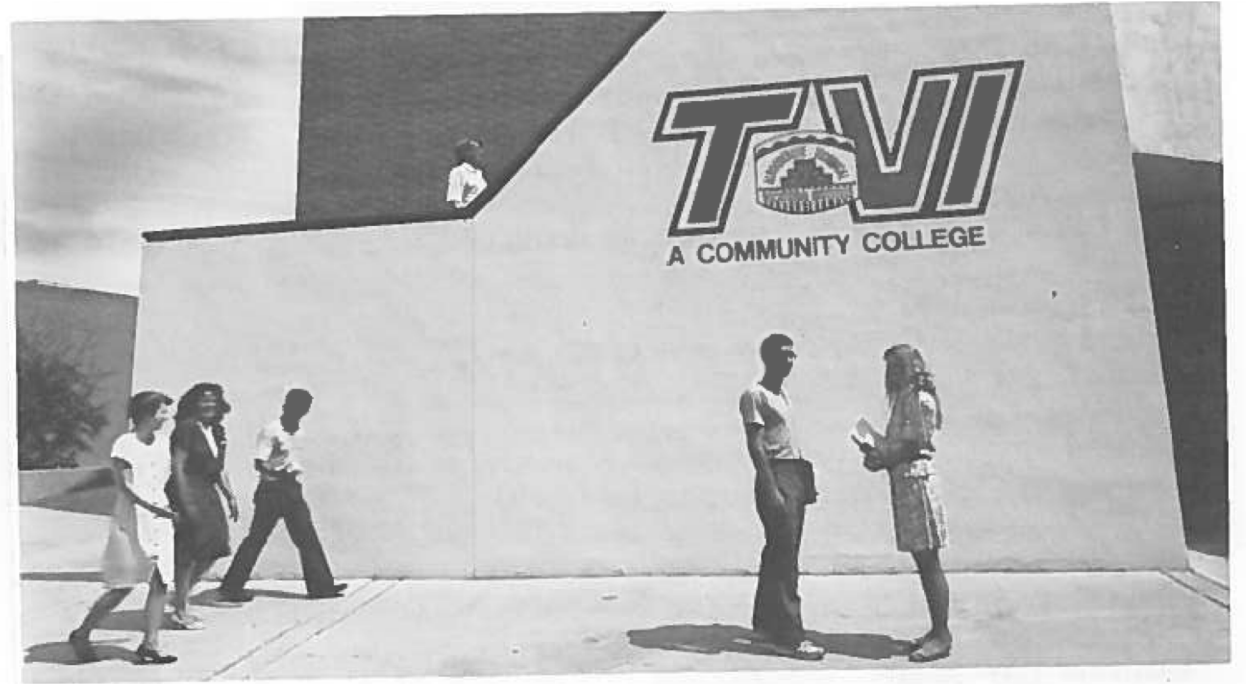

Why CNM for UNM Students?

- CNM is a low cost option for UNM students to pick up degree requirements during summer or other terms
- First-year students who do not meet UNM admissions requirements can get started at CNM
- International students can also now take classes at CNM

#TBT

- The New Mexico legislature authorized the creation of TVI in 1963
- In 2006, CNM became TVI

Intro to CNM

- CNM is the largest community college in New Mexico
- CNM serves 22,000 students and we offer over 200 associate's degrees, certificates, and training opportunities
- CNM has nine locations in Albuquerque and Rio Rancho

Non-Resident Tuition: $293/credit hour; $3,516
for 12-18 credits

CNM Basics: Parts of Term

CNM offers courses over six terms (2019-2020 dates):

- Fall (15-week classes 9/3-12/15; 12-week classes 9/23-12/15; intersession starting 8/12-9/1)
- Spring (15-week classes 1/13-4/26; 12-week classes 2/3-4/26; intersession 12/23-1/12)
- Summer (12 week classes 5/18-8/9; intersession 4/27-5/17)

Getting Started With CNM

- CNM publishes its Schedule of Classes three terms ahead: Spring and Summer 2020 are viewable, including intersession
- CNM does not allow late registration, so it's important that UNM students are registered for classes before they start

- CNM's admission application is easy and straightforward
- Students are admitted and have a CNM student ID and email access within 24 hours
- UNM students can send their UNM transcripts to CNM's Records Office via Parchment or bring a sealed hard copy to the Records office in SSC (Student Services Center, Main Campus)

- Upon admission, students receive two automatic holds: for orientation and for advisement

The screenshot displays the myCNM website interface. On the left is a dark blue sidebar with a menu containing: Welcome, Registration (highlighted with a star), Students, Faculty & Advisors, My Courses, Financial Aid, Cashier, Graduation, and Employee. The main content area has a top navigation bar with links for My Mail, My Sites, a user profile for ERIN RADCLIFFE, and a Sign Out button. Below this, there are three main content columns. The first column contains sections for Registration (with a 'STAY ON TRACK!' banner), Dates & Deadlines, Other Important Links (including CNM Learn), and Contact Us. The second column is titled 'Academic Advisement' and includes a section for 'Meet with an Academic Coach'. The third column is titled 'New Student Orientation' (circled in red) and contains text about the orientation process, including a note about the Bridge to Success Scholarship and a section for 'Online Orientation' (also circled in red). A red arrow points from the 'Online Orientation' section back to the 'New Student Orientation' header. A pink note at the bottom of the first column states: 'NOTE: Registration is unavailable from 10PM - Midnight, 7 days a week.'

New Student Orientation

New Student Orientation will help you get started on your college career and help you understand what to expect as a new student.

All first-time, full-time beginning freshman are required to attend an in-person session. All beginning freshman who are awarded the Bridge to Success Scholarship are required to attend an in-person session by August 1st in order to receive the scholarship. All part-time beginning freshman are encouraged to attend an in-person session.

Online Orientation is available to students who will be attending part-time, have already attended college as a beginning freshman and are returning to CNM after an extended absence, or are transferring to CNM from another college. The Online Orientation is required for students who are currently in high school and participating in the Dual Credit program.

- Students register for classes, register vehicles, set up payment plans, etc. via MyCNM
- Students without transcripts or a test score on file with CNM may request a One-Time Request for Prerequisite Clearance from the CNM Records office
- Students should provide documentation of having met the prereq (e.g. ACT score, unofficial transcript, etc.)

- Students should pay their tuition balance or set up a payment plan with the Cashier after they register for classes to avoid being dropped for non-payment
- This can be done in person at the Cashier's office or via MyCNM
- Payment plans can be set up with $50 ($10 set-up fee + $40 down payment)

Other CNM Specifics

- Students must attend the first class or notify their instructor of their absence to avoid being dropped
- CNM does have free and paid parking, but all cars must be registered via MyCNM and display a sticker
- CNM and UNM have a shared consortium agreement; if UNM is the student's home school, they should visit UNM's Financial Aid office to begin the process and return that form to CNM's Financial Aid

Getting Around

- The Schedule of Classes can help students with basics about their class and contacting their instructors
