

ADVISOR INSTITUTE 2026

Tips for Attending In-Person

- Take care to stay healthy. Get good sleep the night before.
- Submit your license plate for a FREE PARKING PASS in advance (see below).
- Plan for extra travel and parking time.
- Feeling bold—or shy? Wear a silly hat or eye-catching clothing to spark conversation.
- Plan to be unavailable for regular work all day. Set out-of-office messages on your VoiceMail and email.
- Review the agenda and pick sessions that will help you get the most out of this opportunity.
- Breakout sessions may fill up, so find your room early.
- Take advantage of breaks to catch up with colleagues.
- Repeat new colleagues' names and use them in conversation.

What to Bring

- Bring extra pens and a notebook, or bring a laptop, if you prefer. Don't forget a charging cord.
- Bring personal items as desired: hand sanitizer, hand lotion, chap stick, phone charger, and a light sweater.
- Bring a water bottle. Water filling stations are available around the building.
- Bring business cards to share, and collect contacts as you reconnect across campuses and branches.
