To kick off National Transfer Student Week (NTSW), UNM Albuquerque is proud to officially open their brand new Transfer & Transition Student Center. Academic Affairs and the Office of Advising Strategies cordially invite you to join us for a ribbon cutting ceremony to celebrate this special occasion. Come explore our new space to learn all about the services we will offer to current and future students whose pathway brought them to UNM Albuquerque from another college or university, from another UNM campus, or through UNM Albuquerque's Dual Credit & Concurrent Enrollment Program.
